

MODERATORS

Name of position: Executive President, Committee President or Vice-President

Period: 30.7.2017 – 06.08.2017

Number of Places: 14 (2 executive presidents, 6 Presidents, 6 Vice-Presidents for the older groups and 6 presidents, 6 Vice presidents for the younger group)

Executive President

This position is established to ensure that the conference workshops are conducted in the highest quality. His or her role will include organization of the workshops, coordinating training of the workshop presidents and vice chairs, explaining procedures as well as rules of the conference during the workshops to the delegates.

Qualifications

- Possess strong leadership qualities
- Be readily available within the Sogn region
- Be able to work with a team
- Experienced in international Conferences
- Familiar with world current affairs
- Organized

b) Workshop President

The workshop president shall work in collaboration with the vice president in writing study guides as well as help the delegates selected under their committee to prepare effectively for the discussions. At the workshops itself, the workshop presidents shall moderate the debates, encourage a working atmosphere and verify the progress of resolution-writing which shall be presented at the closing ceremony. The president should possess strong leadership as well as organizational skills with broad knowledge on the topic discussed to ensure the quality of the workshop debate.

To be selected as Committee President, candidates must :

- Be an expatriate or university/high school student (for the younger audience)
- Speak fluent English
- Have a fervent interest in international politics and world news;
- Having participated in an international conference would be an added advantage
- Be ready to moderate a workshop during one full week
- Have a sense of leadership, and teamwork
- Be prepared to arrive in Norway early during the preparatory sessions which will take place shortly before the beginning of the General Assembly on the opening ceremony for brief training.

c) Workshop Vice-President

He or she will work closely with the president in ensuring the smooth flow of debates within the workshop.

- Be an expatriate or university/high school student (for the younger audience)
- Speak fluent English
- Have a fervent interest in international politics and world news;
- Having participated in an international conference would be an added advantage
- Be ready to moderate a workshop during one full week
- Have a sense of leadership, and teamwork
- Be prepared to arrive in Norway early during the preparatory sessions which will take place shortly before the beginning of the General Assembly on the opening ceremony for brief training.

To apply please send your resume/CV and a cover letter to committee@internationalconferences.no stating why the position is right for you and how you can contribute to the conference. Applications are open until 20th February.

www.internationalconferences.no